

Games to Play While You Wait

No screens required - just you, the grandkids, and a pen.

Menu Guessing

Before ordering, secretly predict what everyone else will pick. Reveal after the order comes in.

Napkin Tic-Tac-Toe

Classic and never fails. Grab a pen and the paper napkin. Best 3 out of 5 wins.

Story Starter

One person says a sentence. Take turns adding to the story. The sillier it gets, the better.

Would You Rather?

"Would you rather eat only pizza OR only ice cream forever?" Take turns. No wrong answers.

I Spy

Pick something in the restaurant and give one clue. First to guess picks the next one.

Name That Dish

Each person invents the most ridiculous name for a dish on the menu. Vote on the best one.

GRANDPARENT TIP

Early bird menus (5-6pm) often cut 15-20% off - even on weeknights when it's not posted. Ask at the host stand before sitting down.
